

Focus on (KNOW) who you are!

Happiness is not _____ the right person.

Happiness is _____ the right person!

The right person at the right moment can produce a miracle.

Most of us are _____ focused.

We are often focused on the physical or present circumstances surrounding us. We are often times fixated on the horizontal level or plane rather than the vertical plane. We allow the horizontal plane to affect and dictate our vertical relationship with God where it should be the other way around.

3 Out of 52 Challenge

What if three out of the fifty-two Sundays of the year, you have one person who needs Christ in a Sunday service with you? Write down three names of people in your sphere of influence who live within driving distance of the church and who needs a relationship with Christ. Use the prayer model on the back of the card provided to pray for them regularly. Then invite them to church with you.

The Cross and Relationships

March 31, 2019

Life change happens in the context of _____

Philippians 2:5-8 In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death— even death on a cross!

_____ & _____

Our vertical relationship with God is the most important relationship we can have. Our horizontal relationships stems from our vertical relationship or lack thereof.

Genesis 2:18 The LORD God said, 'It is _____ for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.'

Two are BETTER than _____ !

Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. Ecclesiastes 4:9-10
