The Gospel of Jesus Christ

The good news is that the just and gracious Creator of the universe has looked upon hopelessly sinful men and women and has sent His Son, Jesus Christ, God in the flesh, to bear His wrath against sin on the cross and to show His power over sin in the resurrection, so that everyone who turns from their sin and themselves, and trusts in Jesus as Savior and Lord, will be reconciled to God forever.

Why I’m Grateful for Hell

Wayne Murray, Lead Pastor

Series Big Idea

If heaven and hell are realities, then winning lost people to Jesus should be our _____

1.Hell reminds me of how utterly _____ I am on God.

(Isaiah 53:6 NLT) We have left God’s path to follow our own.

(Jeremiah 8:6 NLT) All are running down the path of sin as swiftly as a horse galloping into battle!

(Acts 17:28) In Him we live and move and have our being.

(Isaiah 59:2 NLT) It’s your sins that have cut you off from God.

(2 Thessalonians 1:9) These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power.

(Matthew 7:23) ... Depart from me.

"Scripture sees hell as self-chosen . . . Hell appears as God's gesture of respect for human choice. All receive what they actually chose, either to be with God forever, worshipping Him, or without God forever, worshipping themselves." J.I.Packer

There are only two kinds of people in the end: those who say to God, "Thy will be done," and those to whom God says, in the end, "Thy will be done." All that are in Hell, choose it. Without that self-choice there could be no Hell." C.S. Lewis

“In the long run the answer to all those who object to the doctrine of hell is itself a question: ‘What are you asking God to do? To wipe out past sins and, at all costs, to give them a fresh start, smoothing every difficulty and offering every miraculous help? But he has already done so, at Calvary!’ . . . C.S. Lewis
